NO SURF DETRACTS FROM WAIKIKI REGATTA EVENTS

The Canoe Races, Paddle and Sail, Were Good, However, and Other Stunts Kept Watching Tourists Pleased.

Aside from the fact that the weather man was a little too good in his suppression of the inclement weather which prevailed on Thursday and Friday, the day of sports at Waikiki yesterday was immensely enjoyed by the east throng of tourists and natives which gathered to witness the games.

Special cars carrying the chariotists arrived at the beach at three o'clock, and the visitors lost no time in exploring the Moana and Seaside hotel grounds.

All those who took the trip expressed themselves as having had both entertainments and instruction by their own guide, who gathered before the races began.

The fact that Honolulu has one of the finest and most varied collection of fishes in the world, was surely brought home to them, and it was the expressed opinion of the visitors that the aquarium presents one of the most and most wonderful spectacles which they expect to come to their notice on their entire tour.

Canoe Races

And there came the scores. The war-jaws were first, which was, of course, as it should be. Mr. Bouyoucos took motion pictures of the ladies as they touched their canoes and paddled out to the starting point. A slight mishap, which, however, lent additional interest to the day's sport, was encountered when one of the three canoes capsized, precipitating the entire crew into the water. The canoe was, however, soon righted and hauled out for the race, which was a fast and lively contest one from the ward go.

Mrs. Kalua, captain of the "Makai Fine," crew, took first honors, with Mrs. Kipa, of the Lanikila, a close second. Mrs. Helehi's crew were third and last in this event, but were really not a factor of the race, as at no time did they have a possible chance to win.

Six Paddle Race

Three entries were made for the six paddle race. The Outriggers, the Kamehameha Aquatic Club team, and the Outrigger Strawberries. Although the Outriggers took this race—just barely—the Chuk crew, the last finishers, were put out for them and were crowded close by the Kamehameha to the finish. The time of this race was 4:05 1/5.

After the race, Captain Brown of the Outriggers stated that extra strokes of speed had to be continually applied for to prevent the Evans team taking the lead, and records the winning of the race entirely to their work, as the Kame had every advantage of greater weight and endurance.

Championship Holders

The Outriggers have won the championship for three straight years, and this, coupled with the fact that their crew is composed entirely of white men,

FIRST BOUT AT BASKETBALL

GAMES ARRANGED FOR COLUMBIANS

The Kalihi Pioneers basketball team, which was placed first in the recent Pacific games, will meet the Columbia Columbia basketball team at the Kalihi Pioneers' gymnasium on Saturday, February 19, at 2 p.m.

It was a close, but exciting struggle, and the ball was well taken care of by both teams, and were crowded close by the Kamehameha to the finish.

The Pioneers, in their desire to exhibit both team work and individual skill, were the winners, and the game was a success.

Robert Gandy, captain of the team, the two Harrys, and the two Kamehameha boys, all did a fine job.

Kal M. Alfred, Captain of the Kalihi Pioneers, and George Mills, their coach, are to be congratulated.

The following schedule of games for the season has been arranged by the two clubs:

YACHTSMEN CELEBRATE IN ANNUAL BANQUET

Yacht-men all were there assembled, despite of inclemency. Sponsored at the annual banquet of the Hawaii Yacht Club last night, given at the Alexander Young Hotel, the talk being of soils and reefs, tides and tides, captains, commodores and crews, much of this centering around the bright prospects for the third transpacific yacht race to Hawaii this year.

The affair, as was to have been expected from a gathering of those accustomed to race all the dangers of the deep and quite a few of the dangers of the land, was a jolly one without care or timidity. The course set for the evening had been laid clear of reefs, far from sharp-toothed rocks, where there are no harbor fees, no breakwaters, and no recessed sailing spots are actually paved off and are not merely figments of the press-agent's imagination.

The revelers showed the greatest interest in all the Hawaiian pictures shown on the screen.
